English Literature

(Poetry and Drama - I)

Time Allowed: Three Hours

Maximum Marks: 120

No supplementary answer book will be given to any candidate. The candidates should write the answers precisely in the main answer book only.

Answers to short answer-type questions must be given in sequential order. Similarly, all the parts of one question of descriptive part should be answered in one place in the answer-book.

Write your roll number on the question paper before start writing the answers to questions.

Part A question no. 1 is compulsory. Candidates will be required to explain 4 passage of reference to context with 5 marks each with a total of 20 marks.

Part B has 4 questions (with a limit of 150 words) of 10 marks from each unit. The candidate is required to attempt any 2 questions.

Part C of the question paper is divided into four units comprising question numbers 6-9. There is one descriptive question from each unit with internal choice. Each question will carry 20 marks.

PART - A

1. Explain with reference to context any four of the following passages:

4X5=20

- (i) I wander thro' each charter'd street,
Near where the charter'd Thames does flow.
And mark in every face I meet
Marks of weakness, marks of woe.

- (ii) At length did cross an Albatross,
Thorough the fog it came;
As if it had been a Christian soul,
We hailed it in God's name.
- (iii) The world is too much with us; late and soon,
Getting and spending, we lay waste our powers;-
Little we see in Nature that is ours;
We have given our hearts away, a sordid boon!
- (iv) My mother! when I learn'd that thou wast dead,
Say, wast thou conscious of the tears I shed?
Hover'd thy spirit o'er thy sorrowing son,
Wretch even then, life's journey just begun?
- (v) This war of elements was burst, -
Like to an earthquake in the womb
Of a volcano, - deep and low -
A deadlier storm - on them to burst!
- (vi) Father, when he passed on,
left dust
on a table of papers,
left debts and daughters,
a bedwetting grandson
- (vii) All day I waited, as befits
The folk belief that following
The crow a visitor would come,
An angel in disguise, perhaps

- (viii) I am caught no more in the senses' narrow mesh.
My soul unhorizoned widens to measureless sight,
My body is God's happy living tool,
My spirit a vast sun of deathless light.
